Bath: Bear Essentials, The Bear, 6-10 Wellsway BA2 3AQ (01225 425795, <http://sites.google.com/site/thebearom/home>)

Second and fourth Thursdays of the month, 8.30pm – 11pm. Acoustic open mic. Easy to find on the Somerset side of South Bath. “It's called the Bear Essentials because we like stripped down music. We always welcome singer songwriters, particularly those who haven't played or rarely play in public. There's no limit on style of music as long as it's suitable for public performance. Of course it's always nice to hear applause too... Please arrive early if you want to perform as it often gets busy. Ask for Richard and have your name put on the list. It's first come first served. Those arriving first get to perform first. It's sort of an open mic tradition that the very first person to play gets to play again later in the evening. And it's FREE... You don't need to bring mics or amps. Just bring your guitar or instrument. It's an acoustic evening, The Bear is a busy restaurant and we need to make sure that the diners aren't blasted out. On the other hand we welcome electric guitars, basses and pianos etc as long as volume levels are reasonable. We have a quality PA and microphones which you are welcome to use. Most of the people that come along play on their own but duos, trios etc. are very welcome. However please come along early if you need anything special or have equipment to set up. There isn't any time for sound checks - sorry! We don't just have musicians. Poets and storytellers are welcome. Whoever you are you'll get a fantastic reception but while you are choosing your material, please bear in mind that The Bear is a family venue with a light-hearted atmosphere. The pub is friendly and lively and does great food. Parking is free in the car park behind the pub.”

Bath: The Bell, 103 Walcot St. BA1 5BW (01225 460426)

Traditional music & song sessions - Irish etc. Session organisers are Dave Rowlands and Mike Edwards of local band Gipsy's Kiss. “Ideal session pub, with ample playing space, good acoustics and a nice selection of real ales. Lots of spontaneous applause from friendly and appreciative locals. Smokers will appreciate the palatial covered (and heated!) area which leads off from the bar. At the time of writing, the session consisted of about 50% Irish tunesets and about 50% songs (some modern). The landlord is very enthusiastic, and it would be good to see plenty of support for this session from local musicians.”

We welcome all kinds of folk and roots-related music from the UK, North America and around the world. At MFC we believe in encouraging new performers and fostering fresh talent (see 'cash prize for the best first-timer', notice board) so we do our best to help everyone feel at ease. We believe music should be fun and it should be shared, so we particularly welcome musicians who set out to entertain and include the audience. We enjoy chorus songs and tunes which give others the chance to join in and help us to have a lively evening. We encourage playing and singing along where appropriate - some wonderful musical partnerships have developed through acquaintances made at the club. Check the website for details of the monthly theme nights”

First Friday of the month, 8pm – Midnight. Open mic / jam session

"Spaxrox is the brainchild of a few local people who as musicians themselves feel that there are few outlets for new talent. We know that there are performers out there who would like to play in a band or sing but lack the confidence to put themselves up for public scrutiny or just don't know where to start. We aim to encourage those people to step up to the mic knowing that they are making the best sound they can possibly make in front of a supportive and enthusiastic audience. If there's something that you want to sing or play with the house band, ring Chris or Mat or email spaxrox@virgin.net with the details including whether you want to sing or what you play, we will do our utmost to learn it for the next event. Please try to give us a few days notice!”
